Brand Guidelines

Visual identity reference — colors, typography & logo usage

xlai.live

BRAND OVERVIEW

The XL Intelligence Advantage.

XLAI is a commission-only B2B sales agency for SaaS companies. The positioning is direct and confident: “We Close Your Deals. You Pay When We Win.” Messaging leans on plain, declarative statements, short sentences, and a zero-fluff tone — reflected visually in a stark black/white/red palette, heavy display type, and minimal ornamentation.

This guide documents the visual identity as implemented on xlai.live: color palette, typography, logo usage, and core UI components, so the brand stays consistent across decks, sales collateral, and outbound materials.

VOICE & TONE

Direct	Short, declarative sentences. “Simple. Aligned. Effective.”
Confident	States outcomes plainly — no hedging or filler adjectives.
Zero-fluff	Leads with numbers and mechanics (fees, cycle time, commission).
Aligned incentives	Repeated emphasis on shared risk: “we win when you win.”

LOGO

Wordmark

XLAI uses a text-only wordmark — there is no separate icon or symbol. The mark is set in Inter Extrabold with wide letter-spacing (tracking-widest). The first two characters, “XL,” are set in Brand Red; “AI” is set in the primary ink color.

The wordmark 'XLAI' is displayed in a bold, sans-serif typeface. The 'XL' is rendered in a vibrant red, while the 'AI' is in a dark, near-black ink. The letters are widely spaced, creating a clean, modern look.

Typeface	Inter, weight 800 (Extrabold)
Letter spacing	Wide (tracking-widest, ~0.05em)
“XL” color	Brand Red #C10007
“AI” color	Ink #09090B (near-black)
Minimum clear space	Equal to the height of the “X” on all sides
Minimum size	18px / 0.25in tall — do not shrink below legibility

Do

- Keep the two-tone red/ink color split.
- Preserve wide letter-spacing.
- Use on white or light backgrounds for full contrast.

Don't

- Don't recolor “XL” to any color other than Brand Red.
- Don't condense letter-spacing.
- Don't substitute another typeface.

COLOR PALETTE

A stark palette.

Colors are used with restraint: near-black text on white, one saturated red as the sole accent, and a soft red tint reserved for badges and hero backgrounds.

Usage rule: Red is an accent, not a wash — reserve solid red fills for CTAs, the top announcement bar, and small UI accents (dots, borders). Large surfaces stay white or charcoal.

TYPOGRAPHY

Inter, throughout.

The entire site runs on a single typeface — Inter (Google Fonts, free & open source) — carrying all the typographic weight itself: Black/Extrabold for headlines, Bold for labels, Regular for body copy. No secondary or serif typeface is used.

Note: this PDF is set in Liberation Sans (a metric-compatible substitute available in this environment) to approximate Inter's proportions for layout purposes. Source files and web/app builds should use actual Inter, available free at fonts.google.com/specimen/Inter.
